

Skinner Center

The Skinner Center, located in Midtown Memphis, is a public recreational facility for physically and mentally handicapped individuals. Facility and pool improvements included widening heavy-traffic spaces, updating finishes and fixtures, and incorporating a pool lift, ramp and railings. Window views were maximized to open to a park where neighborhood children play. To enliven spaces even more, sculptures and other local art are displayed throughout.

PROJECT DETAILS

Facility & Swimming Pool Renovations
Completed:	2003
Cost:	$1,000,000
Pool Completed:	2005
Cost:	$200,000

